"Four Metaphors for Our Time"

Rev. John Gibbons preaching

Sunday, February 14 at 10:00AM

"All You Need is (be)Love(d) Community"

A multi-age service led by Rev. Annie Gonzalez Milliken and Deborah Weiner

We often say, "All you need is love..." but creating a true "beloved community" is challenging work. How can we make this ideal real? Our youth will help us imagine the way forward. We'll also celebrate the enduring importance of love, and the importance of 'trying everything' when our efforts to create the reality we imagine don't turn out the way we'd first hoped. Come join us for a service for all ages with music, poetry, inspiration and yes – love!

Sunday, February 21 at 10:00AM

Rev. Billy, Savitri D, and the Stop Shopping Choir, with John Gibbons

New York City performance artist and activist Rev. Billy has been with us in Bedford three times and joined in numerous environmental actions. At the direction of Bill's partner and producer Savitri D. they continue to prod our conscience, stir our hearts, and make a joyful noise. They say:

"We believe that the key to resisting evil (earth-killing consumption) is to share meaning (talk) by the free-falling from song. So many religious services start from conversational speech then heighten to preaching, then incantation then singing and finally ecstatic release into flight. In our quest to stop our shopping, we will conduct this guest appearance in Reverend Johnny's church by reversing this sequence, to sing preach and land on our feet talking cordially to you, and share with you our love of the Bedford Church community. Is this our fourth visit? Let us come to you from the sky."

Another of Billy's recent sermon topics has been, "Is There a Vaccine for the Extinction?" Earth-alujah!

“The Repairers of the Breach”

Led by Sarah Klockowski

The past weeks and years have shined a spotlight on the many breaches in our world, and calls for unity and healing have been ringing out. How might the words of the Hebrew Prophet Isaiah and the Christian practice of Lent offer insight into how to make that reparation a reality?

Common Thoughts

THE VACCINE is much on our minds. Did you know that vaccination has its origins in advice given by an enslaved African named Onesimus to his Boston master, the famed Puritan minister and lay scientist Cotton Mather (1663-1728)? Amidst an epidemic of smallpox in 1721, Onesimus told of “a procedure he had undergone back in his homeland that protected him from this illness. People in West Africa had discovered that they could fend off contagions by inoculating themselves with a specimen of fluid from an infected person.” Mather called it “variolation”, whereby a needle was stuck into a pustule from an infected person's body and then the infected needle was scraped across a healthy person's skin.

Learned persons “resented being told by a gaggle of ministers that Africans had devised the panacea they had long sought.” A lighted grenade was thrown into Mather's house, but he escaped. Violence is a tactic often used against truth. Mather saw little difference between Onesimus's approach and that of Native Americans who had traditional antidotes for snake venom which colonists had readily adopted.

Conventional opinion was that Onesimus's advice would spread disease but, when one physician, Zabdiel Boylston, tried it on his own son and the enslaved people he owned, only one in forty died, as opposed to one in seven who died without treatment. Ultimately, vaccination became standard treatment in Massachusetts and led to the eventual eradication of smallpox, the only infectious disease to have been successfully wiped out. As an aside, Cotton Mather ultimately had a falling out with Onesimus and, oddly, Onesimus bought his own freedom by buying Mather another slave. Onesimus's offense? Apparently, he resisted Mather's attempts to convert him to Christianity, and Mather was resentful. Never underestimate minority opinions.

John Gibbons

(The history of Onesimus is recounted in many places, including Isabel Wilkerson's profound new book, Caste)

Minister's Musings

Love is the spirit of this church we say together, muted on zoom, each Sunday.

As we move into this month of Black history and Valentines, this shortest month that somehow seems to drag on in endless winter, and now endless pandemic, how do we keep that spirit alive?

I know you all are doing it, in many ways. From supportive Facebook comments I notice you making on each other's posts, to hearing from parishioners that First Parish is checking in, sending meals and helping them cope I know that spirit of love is alive. This love I see extended to our guest in Sanctuary and her family, to the Bedford community, to our whole country, in our acts of public witness and private advocacy, our wrestling with big ideas and moves toward learning how to love better.

If you are open to one more way to help increase that spirit of love in our congregation, I recommend to you a role as a Caring Crew coordinator. What does a Caring Crew coordinator do you ask? This person spends one month at a time, maybe once or twice per year, coordinating rides, meals and other forms of tangible help. It is not up to this person to give the rides or cook the meals, but rather to send the needs out to the anno list, or to call someone up and ask if they'll give a ride or to send out a few emails or texts rounding up a few meals. This role is time limited, tangible, and if you don't like zoom, I have good news! It does not require regular meetings. If you are interested in learning more contact Rev. Annie at agonzalez@uubedford.org or 309-310-2341.

Love is the spirit of this church and it looks like many different things. Our great covenant is to dwell in peace, seek truth in love and to help on another. Let us keep that last part of our covenant strong through a healthy, well-coordinated Caring Crew.

Annie

In Liminal Time - Thoughts from Deborah Weiner, Developmental Director - Faith Development for Children
“Mission and Vision”

As many of you know, transitional ministry work involves the religious leader working with a congregation on a number of key elements: to help the church understand its history; define its mission and vision; form new leadership; prepare for a new beginning; and much more.

As my final five months with First Parish in Bedford begin, it's a good time to take a look at the importance of the congregation, focusing attention on the mission and vision for a dynamic faith development program - with an eye toward the future.

It's often true that programs in churches – and the churches themselves – can be very focused on specific elements and lose sight of the larger UNIQUE identity that they want to put forward. Now is the time for this congregation to focus - not only on faith development but on every part of the congregation's life - to understand what your unique identity is...strengths, needs, challenges. At the same time, this is the moment to be building connection through all parts of the congregation to strengthen the whole 'body' of the church.

It's a time for discernment, vision, new energy, imagination. And of course, as you plan for new leadership and a much-hoped-for return to in-person programs sometime in the next twelve months, there is much that is unsure and unsettled.

There is opportunity in the future: for imagining what faith development programs can look like, how they can be offered, how to use today's technology to reach wider and to engage more families. There are challenges for sure: much-beloved education programs had to be re-imagined or put on 'hold' during the pandemic. Much as we wish for that time to be given back to us, children grow and mature and some of the programs or curricula that we love will not be able to be offered to our children.

So, what kinds of offerings will engage and build a Unitarian Universalist identity – particularly for children in the early primary school grades? Where can engagement with social justice and UU values be built in throughout all ages; how can programs that will help connect with a faith that can be lived out in the world - for older middle and high school aged youth - take hold? How can First Parish reconnect with “Our Whole Lives” - not just for middle schoolers – but for younger and older elementary and high schoolers?

What does the future hold? Although a new religious educator will be at First Parish in Bedford in the fall, the curricula and operating plan for faith development for next year will be identified this spring. The plans for 2021-22 will build on what has been offered this year – changing the curricula for variety, yet still remaining focused on those ‘pillars of learning’ that are so important. We'll look towards finding new combinations of age groups and a variety of special programs. We've learned much during this ‘hybrid’ year: what we've learned, and how we've changed, needs to be part of the new mix that will shape this congregation's future.

The sociologist Howard Zinn said, “You can't stay neutral on a moving train.” Although the train this year might not have been the one we wanted to be on, we've learned from the trip, and these experiences will shape where you go in the future. What does First Parish in Bedford want to be? What is most important in terms of faith and mission? Let those values inform the faith development program the church offers – the possibilities are almost endless!

With love and faith,
Deb

The Bedford Lyceum
A Forum on the Arts, Spirituality, Science, and Justice

Sunday, February 21, from 4:00 – 5:00PM

Please join us via Zoom for our monthly Lyceum. This month's presentation is entitled “Poetry and Process: A Reading by Joyce Peseroff.”

Local poet Joyce Peseroff will read from her sixth book of poems, Petition, published in November by Carnegie Mellon University Press. She will discuss her writing process in general, and the specific ways in which certain poems were written. She'll also discuss the vital support a decades-long writing group has offered her.

Ms. Peseroff founded and directed the Creative Writing MFA Program at UMass Boston, where she taught for 17 years. Her honors include grants from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Massachusetts Artists Foundation, as well as a Pushcart Prize. Ms. Peseroff's fifth book of poems, Know Thyself, was named a “must-read” by the 2016 Massachusetts Book Award.

Come and enjoy this exciting presentation!

MUSIC NOTES

“There's nothing you can do that can't be done. Nothing you can sing that can't be sung. Nothing you can say, but you can learn how to play the game. It's easy. All you need is love.”

- song and lyrics written in 1967 by John Lennon (1940-1980) and Paul McCartney (b. 1942)

Here's the music for upcoming 10 a.m. Sunday services on Zoom (unless otherwise noted) -

Feb. 7: Steve Sussman will be playing the piano.

Feb. 14: In honor of the lovely theme of the day, the adult choir will sing Lennon and McCartney's "All You Need is Love" from a service from Feb. 2018. There will be a new music video about love featuring members of KidSing and the youth choirs. Buffie and Dean Groves will sing Lennon and McCartney's "The Word".

Feb. 14 (at 4PM): See article opposite -> about the fantastic Valentines Sing Along with an all-star cast!

Feb. 21: There will be a special appearance by Reverend Billy and the Church of Stop Shopping Choir. Be prepared for upbeat and rockin' music as part of a lively service.

Feb. 28: The prelude will be Carol Epple-flute, Elizabeth Connors-clarinet and me playing "Feb.: Carnival" from Tchaikovsky's "The Seasons" from a service in Feb. 2018.

Isn't it time to think about joining the adult choir? We meet each Thursday evening, sometimes we sing, sometimes we talk, sometimes we watch musical videos, but every time we share our stories and energy as we all deal with life's present situations. If interested, e-mail me at bconner@uubedford.org Let's take advantage of the circumstances we've been given and continue to find positive and uplifting ways to explore musical joy and fellowship.

Brad Conner, Music Director

Valentine's Day Sing-Along! Sunday, February 14, 4:00PM Do you remember the very successful and joyful Holiday Sing-Along last December? In a similar vein, Brad Conner will be hosting a Valentine's version, and it, too, will be a fun event for all ages. Even though everyone will be on mute much of the time, it promises to be a lively and tune-filled hour of delightful Valentine favorites. Come dressed in your reddest, heart-print finery (hats encouraged) and join Brad, Steve Sussman, Bob & Fran Tyler, Cynthia Mork, Ben Sears and some surprise guests as they celebrate loving one another. For a post-concert reception, the Music Committee is planning on creating bags filled with Valentines goodies, treasures and tickets for a special Valentine prize drawing (you must be present to win!) which can be picked up at the Elm St. entrance to First Parish on the day of the show between 12:00-3:30PM. For those unable to come to the church, but would still like to enjoy a bag of delights, please e-mail Cynthia at cynthiamork@icloud.com through Friday, February 12 and they will be dropped off on Saturday afternoon/evening on February 13. During the event, a donation will be requested with half of the proceeds going to First Parish and the other half going to Chelsea Eats, a food bank to help one of Massachusetts' hardest hit communities during the pandemic. Access for ALL

We're delighted to report that after about six months of looking at everything available for closed captioning, and comparing each product, Sunday services on Zoom are now closed captioned!! Using a product called REV, two mouse clicks will get users to captioning. Attendees on Sunday can look at the bottom of their zoom screens to find a white box with a black border that says "CC". Clicking on that box brings users to a drop down menu: when you choose "live transcript", VOILA!

This review process was led and managed by Dean Groves, who understands computers and speaks their language, so be sure to thank him.

For the next several Sundays, we'll take some time before the service to make sure everyone who wants to use closed captioning can learn how to do so. And you won't have to do this every Sunday! Once you do your clicking, the captioning is there until you choose to disable it.

Sanctuary Update

January has been a productive month for church sanctuary residents across the country. Maria is a member of the National Sanctuary Collective, which held a national Press Conference event last week bringing attention to those in sanctuary and asking for immediate protection and relief from President Biden. Each of the leaders/guests spoke for three minutes, poignantly sharing their stories and hopes. Unfortunately, there was some technical difficulty with the live translation. This link provides English captions: <https://youtu.be/ESKNbuwr-RE>

Local media covered the story. Note especially the Masslive.com story – Maria is quoted at the end of the post!

<https://www.bostonglobe.com/2021/01/26/nation/markey-warren-castro-lead-democrats-urging-biden-protect-immigrant-families-living-churches/>

<https://www.masslive.com/news/2021/01/immigrants-living-in-sanctuary-appeal-to-president-joe-biden-for-policy-change.html>

The final letter to Biden included signatures from MA Senators Markey and Warren, and Representatives McGovern, Trahan and Pressley.

Many of you have questions about Maria's legal situation. We feel most comfortable saying that there are a number of avenues being pursued in the hope of finding a safe way for Maria to leave sanctuary, pursue her legal case and move forward on a path to citizenship. Thank you for your continued support and stay tuned!

In love and hope,

Maureen Richichi for the FPB Sanctuary Committee

Ferry Beach Update

Unfortunately, due to COVID-19 concerns, we do not plan to convene at Ferry Beach on Mother's Day weekend 2021 as usual for our annual parish retreat. The feeling is that not enough vaccine will be accessible by then to allow us to gather safely. Rest assured that your Ferry Beach retreat coordinator is ready and willing to make arrangements for a 2022 retreat. Hopefully, we will have a large group then due to pent-up demand for opportunities to engage in community experiences!

Will you be our Valentine?

Feeling the love for our community and wishing we could be together? Send in your homemade or carefully selected valentine cards to:

First Parish in Bedford
 75 Great Road
 Bedford, MA 01730

or drop them off in our mail slot at the Elm Street door by Feb. 12. You can address the Valentine to the whole community or to some specific piece of First Parish you love such as the choir community, the Sanctuary committee, the people who teach middle school faith development, etc.

These Valentines will be photographed and displayed in our Feb 14th worship and will also be distributed out to our community afterward. Share the love!

Social Responsibility Council Update!

The Social Responsibility Council (SRC) awarded funds to the following grant proposal at our January meeting:

- The Guinea Pig Sanctuary - submitted by Liz Hanegan. The sanctuary takes in abandoned guinea pigs and delivers extensive community services including placement of emotional support guinea pigs for children struggling with anxiety during COVID. It also supports visitors to the 150 guinea pigs living at the sanctuary, including those from adult group homes, special needs children, and children learning to read.

Approval was also given for the following "Share the Plate" proposals for February and March:

- February 7 - Chelsea Eats – proposed by the SRC Committee to address food instability. This foundation was created by the City of Chelsea to provide emergency food to residents during COVID, with the goal of transitioning to a more sustainable model of food relief, including maximizing all public dollars already allocated to food.
- March 7 - The Ujima Fund - proposed by Cecile Mercado. The Boston Ujima project pools capital for communities of color to meet financing needs that traditional banks will not serve. The goal is to build wealth in the community.

Our December "Share the Plate" netted $408.18 for the Malala Fund. The January "Share the Plate" numbers are still in process. The Christmas Eve offering from the 8PM service provided $3,452 to the Sanctuary Fund, while the early service offering sent $853.85 to the World Central Kitchen. Your generosity is so appreciated!

Full information about how to submit an application for a grant or "Share the Plate" proposal and appropriate forms can be found on the SRC page of the church website. Any comments or questions can be directed to Marge Heckman, SRC chair, at maheckman@gmail.com.

Congratulations to Devon Tate and Mark Dunlea, who were married on January 17 at the 1629 Winery in Plymouth with John Gibbons officiating. John was, uh, their 3rd choice of officiants after #1 wasn't allowed to travel due to COVID, and #2 tested positive. Devon and Mark were nonetheless joyously married!...

Congratulations also to Sarah and Bob Dorer, who welcomed their third grandchild, Henry Howard Dorer, son of James and Reed, born January 6...

Our thoughts are with David Linden on the recent death of his nearly 94-year old father...

Uniquely beloved by friends, family, and generations of Bedford children who were delighted by her reading aloud, Judith McConnell was able to return to her lifelong home where she squeezed hands until her last breath. Her legacy of graciousness and love surround son Laurie, his wife Hina, and their son Zeno.

Alas, we'll soon be having a memorial service for John McClain's father David, a frequent presence in our services. We'll gather on zoom on Saturday, Feb. 6 at 2PM:

<https://zoom.us/j/8958866876>

or participate by phone by dialing (929)436-2866.

For either option, the meeting ID is 895 886 6876

We'll also have a zoom memorial for beloved parishioner Donna Cole on Friday, February 12 at 4PM:

14 New Members...Wow!

Now is a time when a lot of churches have been, well... going out of business. It's a hard time to stay connected and it's a hard time for us, too.
